Resource management

Resource management refers to the strategic planning, allocation, and optimization of various assets, such as finances, human resources, technology, and time, to achieve specific goals and maximize efficiency and productivity within an organization.

Rehosting Strategy

- Rehosting, often referred to as "lift and shift," is a cloud migration strategy where organizations move their existing applications and workloads to the cloud with minimal modifications.
- It involves replicating the application's current infrastructure configuration in the cloud environment

Advantages:

- Speed
- Reduced Risk
- Cost Savings
- Familiarity

Real-world examples:

- Security: Due to the fact that data processing takes place at the outside edge of the network there are often
- Netflix
- Airbnb
- GE Healthcare
- CapitalOne
- NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory (JPL)
- SAP
