REPORT ON “Essay Writing Event on topic of

The Evolution of Social Service in Post-Independence India: Achievements and Challenges

The Rotaract Club of Pragati Engineering College (A), conducted an essay writing event on the topic of Evolution of Social Service in Post-Independence India: Achievements and Challenges. In total 32 students of II B.Tech participated in the event which was co-ordinated by the Faculty In-charge of Rotaract Club Mr.Manas Kumar Yogi, Asst. Professor of CSE Department.

In most of the essays these major aspects are covered.

1.Importance of social service in addressing poverty, inequality, and social justice.

2.Historical Context

- Early social service initiatives post-independence, including the establishment of community development programs and the role of non-governmental organizations (NGOs).
- Influence of Mahatma Gandhi’s philosophy on social service and rural development.

3.Achievements

- Expansion of social welfare programs, including the Integrated Rural Development Program (IRDP) and the National Rural Employment Guarantee Act (NREGA).
- Growth of education and health services, particularly for marginalized communities.
- Successful implementation of schemes like the Mid-Day Meal Scheme and the Public Distribution System (PDS).
- Role of technology in improving service delivery (e.g., digital initiatives).

4.Challenges

- Persistent issues of poverty, unemployment, and inequality despite advancements.
- Regional disparities in access to social services and the effectiveness of programs.
- Bureaucratic inefficiencies and corruption undermining social service initiatives.
- Impact of globalization and economic policies on social service priorities.

5.Current Trends

- Emergence of social entrepreneurship and innovation in addressing social issues.
- Increased focus on mental health and gender equity in social service programs.
- Role of community participation and empowerment in enhancing service effectiveness.
