CONCLUSION:

The Poster Presentation Competition 2025 proved to be an enriching experience for both participants and attendees. It successfully created a platform for students to express their ideas and research across diverse themes such as startups, innovation, leadership journeys, AI-driven solutions, and women empowerment in technology. The event not only encouraged critical thinking and creativity but also fostered a spirit of collaboration and confidence among budding technocrats. The active involvement of students, faculty, and management contributed significantly to the event's grand success.
